
Overview

This standard is about establishing a supportive working relationship with clients and helping them to explain their needs in interviews. You will need to be able to make clients feel at ease and also be able to explore any additional information about clients, which may be important in providing appropriate help. You must also be able to recognise when there is a need to take immediate action and follow appropriate processes for doing so. You may also have to cope with clients who are abusive or violent and must know how to do this safely.

There are three elements

- 1 Enable clients to explore their problems and concerns
- 2 Manage interview processes
- 3 Bring interviews to an end
